

Think you can't afford an au pair?

Cultural Care Au Pair will make you think again.

At Cultural Care Au Pair, we make it easier for you to give your children the world by offering flexible, highly-trained au pairs at a price that won't break the bank.

We offer top-notch customer service and the most extensive pool of au pair applicants in the industry, yet we still charge a lower program fee than many of our competitors. Our program is about half the price of most traditional daycare programs and American nannies, with fees that are fixed regardless of how many children you have.

Here, your money goes farther. In return for your investment, Cultural Care provides you with ongoing support, a superior matching process and au pair training program and an enriching cultural experience that leads to lasting relationships around the world.

It's childcare you can afford—and an experience you can't afford to miss.

As America's leading au pair program for more than 15 years, Cultural Care offers flexible, highly-qualified care for your children at a price you can afford.

“A lot of my friends and colleagues are surprised that we have an au pair because they think it’s expensive. But, once they realize it only costs $280 a week and see how Magda interacts with Jasmine, their interest grows. Now a lot of them host au pairs too.”
